Dear Parents/Carers,

On Wednesday 19th December we will be visiting the Theatre Royal Plymouth to watch a performance of 'The Gingerbread Man'. This trip is to support the language and understanding development of the children and to give them the opportunity to fully immerse them in the expressive arts to support their creative abilities.

We will be walking to the venue, as we are fortunate to be located so close to the City Centre. The performance starts at 10:30 and the children will be back in time for lunch.

We ask that the children please wear their school uniform, sensible school shoes and a warm coat, to keep them comfortable and safe during the walk.

The children will be watching 'The Gingerbread Man' which is a family performance, so please be rest assured that this is suitable for all of the children with no scary elements to it.

There will be a cost of £8.00 for this trip to cover the ticket cost. This can be paid via the school office. Please let us know if there are any issues with regards to the payment and we will support you where we can.

Many thanks,

Mrs Gleed
