MR DYSON'S NEWS

We have reached May half-term! It is not the way we envisaged the Summer half term starting as we now acclimatize to the 'new' normal, but it has amazed me how well we have coped together as a school community.

I sent home a letter this week to explain about the re-opening to specific children on June 1st. In that letter, it talked about Key Workers. There is a definition in the government guidelines about who is a key worker. If you feel you are a key worker, you must contact the school to explain your circumstances and check if there is space in school to accommodate your child. We must be really strict with our ratios to ensure we comply with the social distancing measures. The guidance is still clear in that, where possible, we must still stay at home.

This is still guidance from the government however, if any of our staff become poorly, or the Key Worker list changes, the school reserves the right to withdraw the provision for groups of children. If this does happen, we will contact you immediately.

Thank you for your understanding with this. Have a lovely half-term week. Stay safe and God Bless.

UNIFORM

At our governors meeting last week, our uniform policy was agreed. The main changes are our new logo on the jumpers and for children to wear collared shirts and ties from Year 1 to Year 6. I am confident that our new uniform policy will ensure that all of our children will look really smart for when we return to school. The uniform is available to buy from The Schoolwear Shop on Mayflower Street and our policy is available on our website.

BREAKFAST CLUB

Unfortunately due to budget constraints, we will not be able to continue our free Breakfast Club from September.

Breakfast Club will continue in September but there will now be a small charge to attend to help cover the costs. Having looked at different schools' provisions for Breakfast Clubs, prices range from 80p to £6.50. The 'going rate' seems to be between £2 and £2.50.

I will be consulting again with governors and our pricing and timing of our Breakfast Club will be shared with you before we end for our summer holidays.
